

Biography

John Harris

*Vice President
Country Club Bank
Capital Markets Group
Columbia, Missouri*

Present Position:

Vice President with Country Club Bank, n.a., Kansas City, in the Capital Markets Group where he is responsible for Public Finance. His responsibilities include advising and assisting local governments in borrowing money on a tax-exempt basis to meet their capital facilities and equipment needs.

Banking History:

John graduated with a B.S. from the Geography/Geology Department of Illinois State University, Bloomington, Illinois, with graduate studies specializing in remote sensing and cartography. In 1981 John joined his family in business at The Callaway Bank of Fulton, Missouri. Beginning in 2002, John was responsible for the public finance investment banking at Central Trust Bank in Jefferson City, Missouri. He worked with holding company banks and municipal issuers serving as financial advisor and completing bond transactions.

Civic Activities Include:

John has served on the boards of Kingdom of Callaway Historical Society, Fulton Area Development Corporation (FADC), Fulton Development Corporation (FDC), United Way, Kingdom of Callaway Chamber of Commerce, and Callaway County Public Health Commission. John stays involved in remote sensing and cartography by utilizing his commercial pilot certificate to collect data for the Department of Agriculture at the University of Missouri.