Banking History:

Lonnie has eighteen years of successful experience in fixed income investing. Initially, he worked with high net worth individuals developing estate plans and fixed income investment portfolios at UMB Bank in Kansas City. He then made the transition to UMB's Investment Banking Division where he serviced community banks and insurance companies.

Lonnie left UMB in 1995 to co-found AMG, investment advising firm. At AMG he was one of the partners responsible for developing the customer base, trading and producing custom investment reports. AMG offers a complete package of institutional services including fixed income management and asset/liability management. As a current employee of AMG, Lonnie continues to trade, manage fixed income portfolios and consult on Asset/Liability Management.

As an employee of Country Club Bank, Lonnie is combining his portfolio management and asset/liability management expertise to develop new customers.

Lonnie's education includes a Juris Doctor, 1979, from the University of Missouri.
